

ENGLISH NEWS

THE EURO-SCHULEN TRIER

News, News, News!!!

At the Euro-Schulen Trier, we are particularly proud to introduce our very first issue of ENGLISH NEWS. It will cover information on everything from the English Department to class events or happenings to jokes to quizzes etc. Essentially, ENGLISH NEWS is there to inform you of what is happening in the English Department. However, we're an open bunch of people and we'd obviously welcome contributions of general interest and importance from everyone. So why not submit anything you may consider funny, interesting or even of educational value to the English Department? We'd love to hear from you too.

ENGLISH NEWS will appear once per quarter. Any contributions may be sent to Andrew Kremp-Steyn.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT: ESA 8

The Euro-Schulen Trier is a very proud partner of the University of Central Lancashire (Preston) and the New College Durham (Durham) in the UK. Each year, a number of our ESA graduates are likely to „migrate“ to either one of these institutions to continue their academic career there.

And introducing...

We'd like to introduce the teaching staff in the English Department to you (l-r): Liz Greenwood (Teacher: Correspondence and Translation DE-EN for FSK, Teacher for MDA), Jim Snook (Teacher: Business, Correspondence for ESA), Andrew Kremp-Steyn (Teacher and Head of the English Department). Andrew is responsible for Essay Writing and Oral Communication, coordinating all activities concerning the English Department as well as dealing with applications for further studies (e.g. Bachelor degrees) at the University of Central Lancashire, Preston (UCLan) and New College Durham, Durham (NDC), both located in the UK.

Sabine Cullen, English Teacher (Translation EN-DE for ESA, Teacher for MDA). Not present: Ms Krystina Lyle, English Teacher for our evening courses.

This year, we're extremely pleased to announce that the following students have been accepted to take up their bachelor studies in BA(Hons) Management, Business and Administration at the New College Durham. Our congratulations go to:

Ms Nazan Aynur, Ms Verena Braun, Ms Anna Jäckel, Mr Melih Kardelen, Ms Elna Kuhlmeier, Ms Julia Müller, Ms Katharina Neuner and Ms Marina Schmitz (incidentally, 8 students from the ESA 8) - it's obvious that 8 is our lucky number!!! From the English Department, we wish you the very best of success at NDC and in the UK.

Speaking of „outgoing“ ESAs, we'd like to welcome our „incoming“ ESA 11 class. Once again, a warm welcome to all of you - we trust you've settled in by now.

NOTICE BOARD:

* „The English Corner“, an extra notice board in the cafeteria on the first floor is where you will find general information and announcements on a regular basis concerning English.

* Interested in studying in the UK? Why not talk to Andrew Kremp-Steyn? He'll help you on your way. Consultation hours: Mondays from 13h00-14h00 (3rd floor).

* Anybody interested in joining a weekly extra-mural English „Stammtisch“? Well, why not contact Krystina Lyle? Contacting details obtainable from Andrew Kremp-Steyn (3rd Floor). It probably goes without saying where this „Stammtisch“ will be taking place. Note: this offer is only open to students from the Euro-Schulen Trier.

ONE-MINUTE VOCABULARY LESSON

Did you know the difference between „eligible“ and „illegible“?

Eligible means to qualify for something (e.g. to qualify for your ESA exams). Illegible means that something cannot be read easily (e.g. somebody's handwriting is so terrible that you cannot read it easily or clearly). And how do you pronounce these two words?

THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT WISHES ALL STUDENTS OF THE ESA 8, FSK 7 AND MDA CLASSES EVERYTHING OF THE BEST FOR THEIR FINAL EXAMINATIONS !!!

ALSO IN OUR NEXT ISSUE:

- A PERSONALITY INTERVIEW
- GRADUATION (ESA, FSK)
- DID YOU KNOW...?
- VARIOUS ARTICLES
